

OSHAcademy Programs

General Industry Safety and Health Program (10 Hours)

Occupational Safety and Health Specialist Program (44 hours)

OSHAcademy Courses

105 Hazard Communication: Basic

107 Emergency Action and Fire Prevention Plans

108 Personal Protective Equipment: Basic

161 Industrial Hygiene: Basic

162 Accident Investigation: Basic

603 Stairway and Ladder Safety

605 Confined Space Safety

702 Effective Accident Investigation

917 Motor Vehicle Safety

OSHAcademy Programs

General Industry Safety and Health Program (10 hours)

Intended for

This program is appropriate to all entry-level workers.

Learning outcomes

Upon completion, the participants will understand OSHA, recognize hazards, develop safety plans, conduct accident investigations.

Introduction

An Introduction to general industry program teaches workers and employers how to identify, avoid and prevent workplace hazards.

In order to qualify this program, a participant has to complete and pass the followings course contents:

1. 105 Hazard Communication: Basic
2. 107 Emergency Action and Fire Prevention Plans
3. 108 Personal Protective Equipment: Basic
4. 114 Walking-Working Surfaces and Fall Protection
5. 115 Electrical Safety for Employees: Basic
6. 144 Introduction to OSHA
7. 153 Ergonomic Hazards in General Industry
8. 159 Hearing Protection: Basic
9. 161 Industrial Hygiene: Basic
10. 162 Accident Investigation: Basic

Occupational Safety and Health Specialist Program (44 hours)

Intended for

This program is suitable to supervisors, head of safety department and anyone who will be appointed as an OSH specialist, Coordinator in workplaces.

Learning outcomes

Upon completion, the participants will understand OSHA regulatory standards, develop solutions to workplace safety challenges, acquire knowledge and skills to perform as an Occupational Safety and Health Specialist

Introduction

This program will teaches employees, supervisors and managers how to create and manage safety and health programs in a workplace. The participant will acquire occupational safety and health knowledge and effectively perform their duties.

In order to qualify this program, a participant has to complete and pass the followings course contents:

1. 700 Introduction to Safety Management
2. 705 Hazard Communication Program
3. 709 Personal Protective Equipment
4. 710 Energy Control Program - LOTO
5. 711 Introduction to Ergonomics
6. 714 Fall Protection Program
7. 715 Electrical Safety Basics
8. 717 Emergency Action Plans

OSHAcademy Courses

105 Hazard Communication: Basic

Features

Modules: 2

Hours: 1

Description

This course introduces you to Hazard Communication Standard (HCS). This course is to ensure employers and employees know about work hazards and how to protect themselves.

107 Emergency Action and Fire Prevention Plans

Features

Modules: 2

Hours: 1

Description

This course introduces the key elements of an effective Emergency Action Plan (EAP) and Fire Prevention Plan (FPP). Employers need to have both of these safety plans to be prepared for emergencies.

108 Personal Protective Equipment: Basic

Features

Modules: 2

Hours: 1

Description

This course will provide general information of personal protective equipment (such as head protection, body protection, foot protection etc.) requirements in the workplace.

161 Industrial Hygiene: Basic

Features

Modules: 2

Hours: 1

Description

This course introduces you to how to detect the extent of health hazards and worker exposure to those hazards in the workplace, and recommend solution to mitigate those hazards and exposures.

162 Accident Investigation: Basic

Features

Modules: 2

Hours: 1

Description

This course is an introduction to the basic steps of accident investigation, how to identify root cause and to make a corrective actions in a workplace.

603 Stairway and Ladder Safety

Features

Modules: 3

Hours: 1

Description

This course is an introduction to types of ladders and general requirements for ladders in a workplace and provide the knowledge needed to work safely on stairways and ladders.

605 Confined Space Safety

Features

Modules: 5

Hours: 2

Description

This course introduces types confined spaces, entry permit for confined spaces, hazardous conditions of confined spaces and how to rescue from confined spaces.

702 Effective Accident Investigation

Features

Modules: 8

Hours: 6

Description

This course is for anyone who is required to investigate accidents. It gives you the information to analyze an accident, the cause of injury. It will enhance the skills needed to analyze and evaluate the safety management system (SMS) for root causes.

917 Motor Vehicle Safety

Features

Modules: 5

Hours: 8

Description

This course is to ensure that all personnel required to drive a company vehicle will drive safely and get the knowledge of relevant driving related laws/ regulations.